

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Wednesday, June 1, marks the 85th anniversary of the birth of a Minnesota-born, dyed-in-the-wool South Dakota Republican; and,

WHEREAS, This same lady flaunts her Republicanism with one of the more interesting inanimate elephant collections in the state; and,

WHEREAS, This lady fulfills all the grandmotherly roles of knitting, crocheting, and baking cookies for her progeny which includes ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren; and,

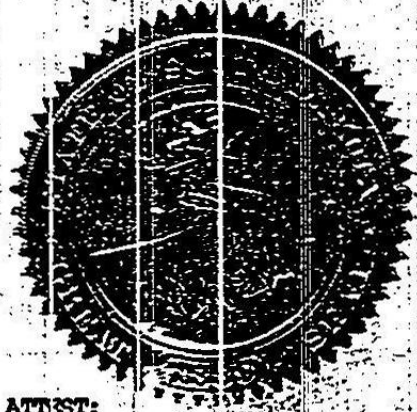

WHEREAS, This lucky lady is an avid bingo player who uses her winnings to support her other hobbies of Republicanism, knitting, crocheting, and baking; and,

WHEREAS, On Saturday, May 28, family and friends will gather at her home in Rapid City to celebrate this 85th birthday with food, fun, and fellowship;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 1, 1988, as in South Dakota, and join all of South Dakota in wishing her a most happy and memorable birthday.

ATTEST:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight.
